Letter from the Chief Executive

First enterprise logos in Niamey and Dakar; small team, services-heavy revenue mix, disciplined burn.

Public-sector procurement freezes and border closures stall signature; the company pivots to remote delivery and digital-transformation mandates, protecting cash over growth.

Remote-work demand converts the pivot into durable subscription revenue; first multi-year contracts with regional banks.

Consolidated revenue for the year was USD 2.19M, at a 49.2% gross margin and USD -258.6k of EBITDA. Exit ARR reached USD 1.54M across 43 active customers, with 38 employees. The enterprise health index closed the year at 74.4/100 (Stable).

Risk factors

- Sahel geographic concentration: political instability and corridor closures can delay imported hardware and team mobility.
- Energy dependence: grid reliability drives generator costs and Scope 1 emissions.
- Currency risk: revenue is denominated in USD and EUR while costs are mostly XOF (fixed EUR peg at 655.957).
- Cybersecurity: the February 2023 incident demonstrated how an intrusion cascades into customer retention and cash.
- Talent scarcity: regional and international competition for AI skills keeps pressure on compensation and attrition.
