Letter from the Chief Executive

Tier-III data centre commissioning: heavy CAPEX and imported hardware lift leverage and squeeze runway, but unlock sovereign-hosting revenue.

Cost discipline, pricing revision and automation of delivery lift gross margin and put the Rule of 40 back above target.

Consolidated revenue for the year was USD 12.71M, at a 65.3% gross margin and USD 1.23M of EBITDA. Exit ARR reached USD 12.59M across 179 active customers, with 219 employees. The enterprise health index closed the year at 92.6/100 (Strong).

------------------------	--------------

Risk factors

- Sahel geographic concentration: political instability and corridor closures can delay imported hardware and team mobility.
- Energy dependence: grid reliability drives generator costs and Scope 1 emissions.
- Currency risk: revenue is denominated in USD and EUR while costs are mostly XOF (fixed EUR peg at 655.957).
- Cybersecurity: the February 2023 incident demonstrated how an intrusion cascades into customer retention and cash.
- Talent scarcity: regional and international competition for AI skills keeps pressure on compensation and attrition.

Notes to the financial statements

1. Basis of preparation

Statutory books are kept in XOF under the OHADA framework (revised SYSCOHADA). The presentation above is translated to USD at the internal planning rate; the EUR/XOF parity is fixed at 655.957 by the BCEAO.

2. Revenue recognition

Subscriptions are recognised rateably over the contract term. Professional services are recognised on a percentage-of-completion basis. Hosting revenue is recognised over the occupancy period.

3. Property, plant and equipment

The DC1 facility is depreciated over 15 years for civil works and 5 years for IT equipment. GPU accelerators are depreciated over 4 years.

4. Taxation

Niger corporate income tax at 30%. No deferred tax asset is recognised on carried-forward losses until recovery is probable.

5. Commitments

Equipment facility secured on DC1 hardware, amortising over 60 months. Capacity commitments with three transit carriers.

6. Subsequent events

No material events after the reporting date are reported.

Outlook

Regional border and corridor disruption delays imported GPU and network hardware; on-time delivery and supplier quality both degrade while the Bamako and N'Djamena offices open.
